Rev. J. Philipp Augustine, Pastor

Bulletin dedication:

“Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom in the future” (Proverbs 19:20). Today’s bulletin is given to the glory of God by Jim and Sue Miller in honor of their granddaughter, Elle Koehler, who graduated from Winona Senior High School. Though many ceremonies for the graduates were small or virtual, the instruction and wisdom each graduate received over their time of study was real. May God bless and keep them in His care, and may they continue to seek the wisdom and instruction of the Lord! Congratulations, Elle, and all the class of 2020!

Welcome to Immanuel! We ask all members and guests to please check in with the attendance person as you wait to be seated in the CLC. We hope you are blessed by God’s grace in the worship service. Members, please inform the church office of needed prayers and visits.

Our Mission

Immanuel Lutheran Church exists to spread the Gospel in its truth and purity through Word and Sacraments in accordance with the Confession of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod. Immanuel Lutheran School exists to share the Gospel, so children become disciples of Jesus.

Holy Communion Statement

The Lord’s Supper is celebrated in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may proclaim His death until He comes.

Because those who eat and drink our Lord’s body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive this sacrament, are asked to first speak with the pastor.

For our communicants: gluten-free host is available along with grape juice in the center of the individual cups for those who have allergies or sensitivities to those respective elements. Please request it as you approach the pastor or the elder.

OUR OFFERING OF WORSHIP (Holy Communion only):

Sunday, June 14: 71 souls

OUR OFFERING OF MATERIAL GIFTS:

Sunday, June 14: $ 8,005.00

Those known to be hospitalized: Is any one of you in trouble? He should pray. Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise. Is any one of you sick? He should call the Pastor/elders of the church to pray over him...the prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective (James 5:13-16).

The office is unaware of anyone hospitalized at this time

For any prayer requests wanted on the Congregational Prayer Chain, or in public worship services, call the church office (534-3700) or Barb Larson (534-2623) or E-mail office@immanuelplainview.org provide confidential, one-to-one care as you search through the pieces and find what is truly in your heart. If someone you know is facing a crisis—large or small—and could benefit from the caring presence of a Stephen Minister, talk to one of our Stephen Leaders: Pastor Augustine (534-3700) or Becky Luckstein (534-2236 or 951-1716). Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you.

When “Pull Yourself Together” Doesn't Work - You've heard it time and time again: “Pull yourself together. . . . Cheer up. . . . Tough it out. . . . It's not that bad.” Perhaps people have said it to you. Or perhaps you keep saying it to yourself. But it hasn't helped. You're still hurting. Things are coming apart. Here's the good news: You don't have to go through your struggles alone. Help is available. Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers who will walk with you, listen to you, and Pastor Augustine and family will be on vacation June 22 – July 5. If someone is in need of spiritual care, contact an elder or the church office who can contact Pastor Fuchs or one of our Stephen Ministers.

Video services on YouTube may not be available Sunday mornings now that we return to in-person worship on Sundays. Just a note to request your patience as we adjust to schedule and workload changes. Thank you.

SAVE THE DATE: Mr. Lutringer's retirement celebration has been scheduled for Sunday, August 9th in the CLC. More details to come.

Congratulations to Rev. John Fuchs, retired Pastor of Immanuel, Potsdam and St. John's, Hammond, on celebrating his 55th anniversary of his ordination into the Office of Holy Ministry this weekend!
